

ITALGAS STOCK CONFIRMED IN THE FTSE4GOOD INDEX SERIES

Milan, 1 August 2018 –Italgas has been confirmed in the FTSE4Good series of indices, one of the world's most prestigious stock exchange indices for assessing corporate social responsibility.

Italgas joined the FTSE4Good index in 2017, following its return to the stock market in November 2016.

The evaluation was carried out as part of the June 2018 review in an independent way, meeting the criteria of the FTSE methodology in the Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) area.

With 88 points out of 100, the result demonstrates Italgas' commitment to sustainable development based on the company's leadership in interacting with its social context, aimed at creating opportunities focused on the principle of shared value.
