

Italgas announces Moody's decision to put rating under review

Milan, May 31, 2018 - Italgas announces that, following the decision announced by Moody's Investor Services to "review for downgrade" the Italian government bonds, a corresponding action has also been taken on the Company's long-term rating, currently at Baa1 level, in consideration of the connection attributed with respect to the sovereign credit rating.