

The Italgas stock has been confirmed for the seventh consecutive year in the FTSE4Good Index Series.

Milan, 27 July 2023 – The Italgas stock has been confirmed for the seventh consecutive year as part of the FTSE4Good Index Series, which globally groups the best companies distinguished for their commitment to sustainable economic development.

The current review has resulted in a sustainable performance rating of Italgas at 4.3 points (out of a maximum of 5), an improvement compared to the previous score of 4.2.

The achieved result places Italgas above the Italian companies' average and above the international sector average, confirming the Group's strong commitment to people's well-being, the protection of the planet, and the promotion of partnerships for sustainable development - the pillars of its Sustainable Value Creation Plan.